Week End Marks Zenith Of Newport Social Season

Entertainments, Dinners and Dances Are Given in Profusion in Connection With Cup Finals; Horse Show and Woman's Tourney Next Week

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 27.—A brilliant week end marked the zenith of the social season at Newport, the days of the Davis Cup finals being replete with many and varied entertainments, dinners, dances and luncheons succeeding each other in rapid succession, leaving society without a spare moment. The visiting tennis players were treated to a continuous round of pleasure, many dinners, at which they were honor guests, being given, and teas held each day for them at the residence of Mrs. Barger Wallach.

Two events of importance will be held the first three days of the week. The Horse Show and the women's intercity tournament, being the finals of the summer. Both these attractions will be carried out at the Casino on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and will sustain the interest of society until the first of the month.

Possibilities of Mlle. Lenglen
Playing Adds to Interest
The probability that Mlle. Lenglen will play here during the tournament has awakened enthusiasm among the summer residents, all of whom are anxious to see the French champion in action. The list of entries is steadily being added to, and includes many names of national and international repute. Mrs. Mallory has been invited to attend, and present indications point to a woman's tourney, which will be fully the equal of the two that have been held. It is a matter of conjecture, however, whether the match could be arranged between Mlle. Lenglen and Mrs. Mallory, or not a match could be arranged between Mlle. Lenglen and Mrs. Mallory, or not a match could be arranged between Mlle. Lenglen and Mrs. Mallory.

Horse Show Week, marking the close of the season, is an old standby at Newport, and, as usual, Reginald C. Vanderbilt will give his Horse Show dinner at Sandy Point Farm. Louis Boissereau is entertaining a number of guests at a luncheon Sunday. The show itself promises to be one of the best held in many years. Many championship horses have been entered. Among the prominent owners who have entered their favorites are Miss Constance Vauclain, Miss Isabella Wanamaker, William H. Wanamaker, Mrs. Walter Henley, Mrs. Louis Long, Miss Catherine Wharton Morris, Mrs. W. Woodward Phelps, Mrs. Reginald B. Belknap, Miss Helen Moran, Mrs. B. B. Wygant and Mrs. Louis Treasider. Among the members of the caste are Miss Isabella Hart, Miss Christina Logan, Southwick Phelps, Miss Barbara Wygant, Miss Martha Lays and Miss Helen Perry Rodgers.

42 Society Artists Exhibit Work at Berkshires Show

Varnishing Day Reception Opens Display to Public at Stockbridge Casino; Mrs. Clarke in Charge of Tea

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
LENOX, Mass., Aug. 27.—Forty-two Berkshire artists, many of whom are well known in society in the Berkshire hills, are exhibiting 125 paintings and pieces of sculpture at the thirtieth annual exhibition, which opened at the Stockbridge Casino this afternoon with the vernalizing day reception. Mrs. Daniel Chester French and Mrs. William H. Clarke were in charge of the tea.

Miss Marie O. Kobbie is showing six water color portraits, one being of Miss Elsie Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Parsons, of New York, who is to be married to Morehead Patterson on September 10. The others are of Mrs. Higginson Cabot, of New York; the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Livingston Redmond, of New York; the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian W. Peabody, of Boston; Daniel Kobbie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kobbie, in a Boy Scout suit, and Miss Lydia Field Emmet is exhibiting a portrait of the little son and daughter of Mrs. Alfred Hart, of Waterbury, Conn., sitting on an old-fashioned Windsor armchair, painted green. Mrs. D. Percy Morgan Jr. has painted "The New Mrs. Perry," a new variety of brilliant red poppies. Miss Ethelred P. Folson's contributions are two interior water color views of an old house at Newport. Mrs. Richard C. Dixey is showing "A French Barnyard" with chickens and "A French Lane."

Miss Rosamond Sherwood, international tennis player, has a beautiful portrait drawing of Mrs. Joseph Hooker Woodward, of Pelham, N. Y., while her mother, Mrs. Rosina Emmet Sherwood, has four water color views of "The Brook," "Bass Rocks," "The Out Field" and "The Old Garden at Savannah." Mrs. Wolcott Tuckerman, formerly of New York, now of Santa Barbara, Calif., has a portrait of her mother and a two dog dog in plaster to be used as a book end.

At the Curtis Hotel Mrs. Robert Cooper Townsend, of Oyster Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Arden Morris Robbins, of Rossmont, Pa., at their camp on the New York Lake, include Mr. and Mrs. Reuel A. Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Bradlee Smith, of New York.

Fine Weather Lures Many To Saddle at Paul Smith's

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Delightful weather has contributed to the pleasures of the growing colony of horsemen and horsewomen here daily joining in the early morning saddle trips along new bridle paths opened through parts of the great park of over 30,000 acres within the Paul Smith preserve. John R. Townsend, noted New York horseman, is here and is taking the lead. Others in the daily parties include Mrs. Melvin Wolk, Miss Lottie A. Murphy, Miss Laura N. Johnson, Miss Peggy Heffernan, J. M. May, Walter Weir and M. F. Whalen.

The women members of the house party at Camp Wyndover, the Spittire Lake camp of William W. McAlpin, made the ascent of St. Regis Mountain and enjoyed a picnic luncheon on the summit. In the group were Mr. McAlpin's daughters, Mrs. Andrew R. Shiland, of Cedarhurst, L. I., and Mrs. T. Edward Hambleton, of Baltimore; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Heyward McAlpin, of New York, and Miss Davenport, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson Runyon Jr., who occupy the Bianchi camp on the Lower St. Regis Lake, gave a picnic on Meacham River for several friends, among them Dr. A. T. Chase and Dr. J. E. Peterson, New York. Last Saturday evening Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes observed her seventy-fifth birthday with a small dinner at the Stokes camp, at which the members of the family gathered. Mrs. Stokes, who is among the earliest campers on the St. Regis chain of lakes, received the congratulations of many of her friends.

Henry L. Hotchkiss, of New Haven, who has the distinction of having camped on these lakes the greatest number of consecutive years, recently returned from abroad and is now at his Spittire Lake camp with his daughters, Mrs. Carl B. Ely and Mrs. E. E. Garrison of New Haven.

Colonel and Mrs. George W. Burleigh, of New York, are guests at the camp of Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes. William Rockefeller, who recently arrived at Bay Pond, the Rockefeller place, is doing considerable motoring. Mr. Rockefeller, with his son and the latter's wife, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rockefeller, were the luncheon guests Monday of Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. James at the James camp on the Upper St. Regis Lake.

Narragansett Set Has an Old World Ball at Beach Club

Scarborough Clubhouse Is Decorated After Fashion of Paris Latin Quarter for Unique Social Function

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 27.—The exclusive Scarborough Beach Bathing Club was the mecca to-night for more than 150 members of the fashionable summer colony at Narragansett who arrived there in nondescript costumes of every character for an Old World costume ball. The affair was designed and carried out after the manner of the artists and art students of the Latin Quarter in Paris, and Mrs. Robert I. Goddard, of Providence, and Mrs. Joseph C. Ryerson, of Chicago, were the hostesses. Many costume dinners preceded the dance, and Mrs. S. Hinman Bird, of New York, had a dinner for thirty-five at the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Blaine Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Metcalf, Mrs. David B. Sharp and Mrs. Frederic B. Read. Others at the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. David S. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. P. Randolph Jr., Miss Lisa Norris, Miss Mary Norris, Miss Mary Elizabeth Alenous, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Chow, Mr. and Mrs. Clement T. Wainwright, Harry Parsons Cross, Mr. and Mrs. G. Maurice Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Hinchley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Byron S. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Harris H. Bucklin, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Ames, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Mauran, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Champlin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fletcher.

The clubhouse itself was made into an interior suggestive of a busy street around the tables. The decorative scheme was created by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. S. Hinman Bird. Notwithstanding the costume dance at Scarborough to-night the regular week-end hop at the Casino called out a large assemblage and a number of dinners were given there.

Mrs. Irving H. Chase, of Waterbury, Conn., had one in honor of Mrs. George Barnett, of Washington, wife of Major General Barnett, and her daughter, Miss Anne Hamilton Gordon, who are the guests of Mrs. Chase at Miramar. Mrs. Isaac E. Emerson, of Baltimore, gave a dinner for fourteen young people at Emerson Villa on the Cliffs to-night.

Round of Golf and Dinners Occupies Southampton Set

Tournament of Foursomes Is Played on the Shinnecock Hills Club Links; Secretary of Treasury Mellon Is Luncheon Honor Guest

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The week has been marked by some of the largest gatherings of the season at the bathing beach, by golf tournaments and by numerous luncheons and dinners. Several luncheons were given on Sunday, many of them at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club. Among those who entertained there were Mrs. Riley Miles Gilbert, Mrs. James Francis Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. André de-Coppet, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Peabody, Herbert Smithers, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Berwind, Mrs. Jewett King, Mr. and Mrs. George Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. Ten Broecke M. Terhune, Mr. and Mrs. Finley P. Dunne, Miss Anne Townsend and Rodney Proctor.

Golf Takes Lead as the Popular Outdoor Sport
Golf is fast coming into its own as the leading outdoor sport now that the tennis tourney is over. A tournament of eighteen-hole mixed foursomes was played at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club on Sunday afternoon. The competition was open to members, subscribers and guests of the club. Murray Hoffman and Mrs. William Walter Phelps turned in the lowest scores of the afternoon, and Major and Mrs. Theron R. Strong took second place. Mrs. Joseph P. Knapp provided the prizes for the afternoon.

An interesting competition was staged at the Shinnecock Club on Thursday afternoon, when a nine-hole handicap golf tournament for men and women was played. A feature which contributed much to the interest in the event was the restriction of the contestants to the use of only one club. Mrs. John M. L. Rutherford won first prize from a field of sixty, with a score of 47. Malcolm Goodrich and Richard Shields tied for second prize, and Mrs. W. S. Cochrane, Mrs. George A. Dixon, Lement Harris, Richard Shields, Malcolm Goodrich, George F. Lewis, Anderson Valentine and C. E. Gilbert.

Among those who participated in the competition were Mrs. Edwin C. Jameson, Mrs. Theron R. Strong, Mrs. Clendenin Ryan, Mrs. Daniel C. Sands, Mrs. Grosvenor Nicholas, Mrs. Montague Flagg, Miss Lisa Stillman, Mrs. Adams W. S. Cochrane, Mrs. George A. Dixon, Lement Harris, Richard Shields, Malcolm Goodrich, George F. Lewis, Anderson Valentine and C. E. Gilbert. The clubhouse itself was made into an interior suggestive of a busy street around the tables. The decorative scheme was created by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. S. Hinman Bird. Notwithstanding the costume dance at Scarborough to-night the regular week-end hop at the Casino called out a large assemblage and a number of dinners were given there.

Mrs. Charles E. Mitchell, wife of the president of the National City Bank, left here this week. In company with Mrs. Oren Root she sailed yesterday for the France for Europe. Mr. Mitchell will sail September 3 on the Olympic to join Mrs. Mitchell abroad. Mrs. Root will join her mother, Mrs. Ricardo De Acosta who is now in France with her daughters, Mrs. A. Robeson Sargent, Mrs. W. G. Land, Mr. and Mrs. Morin S. Hare, who have been staying at the Irving Park this week.

Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp gave a dinner at the Meadow Club on Wednesday night for Mr. and Mrs. Parker Corning, of Albany, who are visiting here. Among the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dixon Jr., Major and Mrs. Theron R. Strong, Dr. and Mrs. Walter L. Niles, Mrs. Benjamin Smith Harmon, Miss Juliana Cutting, Mr. and Mrs. John M. L. Rutherford and W. Scott Cameron. Mrs. Samuel Thorne gave a dinner Wednesday night at Maple Shade. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Mortimer, of Tuxedo Park, have joined Mr. and Mrs. John M. L. Rutherford at their Southampton villa, Nelson's Cloverleaf. Mr. and Mrs. James L. Breese are to be supper to their summer home at the Orchard, on Sunday evening. After the supper the guests are entertained by Charles Andrews McCann. Mr. McCann sang and also furnished amusement for the guests with a comic skit on grand opera. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Julian M. Gerard, Miss Isabella May, Hon. Coleman May, Major and Mrs. Theron R. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Farnham, Mr. and Mrs. Andre de Coppet, Mr. and Mrs. John M. L. Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Higgins, George W. Huntington Curtis, James C. Parrish Jr., and several other guests. The summer colony as well as the villagers over the great success of the street fair which was held here two weeks ago. According to the final report of the treasurer, Edward P. Mellon, the net proceeds of the fair total $25,000. This is $2,000 more than the raised last year.
